A Word from Pastor Larry

The late evangelist Billy Graham once stated, “even when life may be difficult, we should thank God for all He does for us—which we do not deserve.” Reflecting on these words, I sit here collecting my thoughts, these words come to mind: “God is good.” We often toss that phrase around without really exploring its truth. Why? Perhaps our culture has muffled the deep appreciation for God’s blessings and fails to offer thanksgiving. Maybe the struggle with human nature lends to our “self-sufficient” mindset.

My heart is filled with the words, “God is good.” I have repeatedly seen the Lord bind His church together and keep them safe and secure. Church history has demonstrated a loving God who protects and preserves His people.

As I reflect on the words, “God is good,” the Words of the apostle Paul come to mind. Paul wrote these words to the church at Corinth, Php 4:8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things The word “finally” indicates that Paul is giving his benediction to the church. With this encouragement, at least six thoughts are needed to keep one busy. Think of things that are good and gospel-centered.

Paul’s goal and vision for the church was the gospel. In fact, Paul writes in the next verse, Php 4:9 What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you. Paul was not being arrogant or boastful. Instead, his hope and confidence were in the gospel he learned and passed on to others. According to these verses, the crux of disciple-making is to think on the goodness of the gospel and pass it on to others.

In short, what sustains us through any adversity or times of trial is the person of Jesus. I often am perplexed as to how those with hardships cope without the Lord. I sit here and think of the song “Ain’t God good,” and try to recollect the words. As I sift through the lyrics, I know these words probably are not hanging on the walls of those with PhD’s or advanced college degrees. I know world renowned ethicists or philanthropist probably will not espouse these words, but they are good to my ears. There is a portion of the songs that reads, “Ain’t god good to give us so many blessings undeserving, that’s what we are, we ought to thank him, Love and praise him, A little more today and a whole lot more tomorrow.” Underscore the word... undeserving.
